

PAPERS AND MONOGRAPHS OF THE FINNISH INSTITUTE AT ATHENS VOL. XIII

THE PROVINCE STRIKES BACK IMPERIAL DYNAMICS IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN

Edited by Björn Forsén and Giovanni Salmeri

Contents

Preface		i
Björn Forsén and Giovanni Salmeri	Ideology and Practice of Empire	1
Vincent Gabrielsen	Provincial Challenges to the Imperial Centre in Achaemenid and Seleucid Asia Minor	15
Cédric Brélaz	Maintaining Order and Exercising Justice in the Roman Provinces of Asia Minor	45
Suraiya Faroqhi	Local Elites and Government Intervention in the Province of Anadolu	65
Angelos Chaniotis	What Difference Did Rome Make? The Cretans and the Roman Empire	83
Maria Georgopoulou	Crete between the Byzantine and Venetian Empires	107
Antonis Anastopoulos	Centre–Periphery Relations: Crete in the Eighteenth Century	123
Giovanni Salmeri	Empire and Collective Mentality: The Transformation of eutaxia from the Fifth Century BC to the Second Century AD	137
John Haldon	Provincial Elites, Central Authorities: Problems in Fiscal and Military Management in the Byzantine State	157
Björn Forsén	Empires and Migrational Trends: The Case of Roman and Ottoman Greece	187
Ilias Arnaoutoglou	‘διά δόξαν ἐκείνων καὶ κλέος τοῦ ἔθνους’ The Philomousos Society of Athens and Antiquities	201
List of Contributors		215